

Thank you for choosing to participate in the Eel River Valley Laser Tag Tournament. All proceeds will go to the fair board and the park. Please remember that this is all for the betterment of the fair and the park. It should be considered friendly competition. The following are a few rules that we will play by but not limited to:

1. Everyone playing must have a liability form signed prior to playing.
2. All teams are expected to play within the boundaries of the yellow tape.
3. Laser Tag is not a contact sport. Any contact will not be tolerated.
4. Please be courteous and have good sportsmanship, before, during, and after all games.
5. At any point, if you do not respect others, you can and will be thrown out of the game and will be banned from future play. No refunds will be given.
6. Remember that you are playing at your risk, and you are responsible for yourself.
7. Please make checks payable to Clay City Fair Broad.
